Teachers receive orientation and training at staff meetings held for an hour on a weekly basis. A review of basic special education and FERPA regulations are held yearly. Teachers also participate in three inservice days a year. Topics are directly related to teaching and learning (reviewing curricula to assure compliance with Maine Learning Results, Differentiation of Instruction, and Writing Across the Curriculum), or to specific needs of children with specific handicapping conditions. Nonprofessional staff receive three to four hours of training per month in the Therapeutic Milieu directly related to the emotional needs of the students.
